

NASSAU COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY
Councilor's Report – June 22, 2017
Paul Pipia, M.D., Councilor

- I The Society and Academy held a joint membership meeting is on Tuesday, May 23 at the Westbury Manor. The Academy presented a Category 1 CME program: “Yes, We’re Stressed. Now What?”, by Maria Basile, MD, MBA, Assistant Vice President, Medical Affairs, Mather Memorial Hospital. MS, Participants were be able identify tools and resources to foster individual resilience; cite examples of success in mitigating stress in the office practice, the section, department, or program; understand the impact of organizational attempts to address physician stress and envision large-scale changes in our health care system that can protect against physician burnout. The presentation was very well received.
- II On Thursday, June 15, the Society will hold its Annual Presidents Reception at the Old Westbury Golf and Country Club. This year the Society will honor NCMS President Carole Lysaght Moodhe, MD. We are pleased to have MSSNY President Charles Rothberg, MD and MSSNY EVP Phil Schuh as our guests.
- III The Society was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Jerome Zwanger, MD on May. Dr. Zwanger served as President of the Society and the Academy of Medicine. He was also the co-founder of the Zwanger-Pesiri Radiology Group along with Dr. E. John Pesiri who passed away in December.
- IV Progress continues to be made with the sale of the Academy Building.
