MSSNY Council – Alliance Report September 13, 2018

The 2018 AMA Alliance Meeting was held in Chicago, June 9-12. The theme of the 95th annual meeting was “Making Connections”. Kim Moser, the outgoing AMA Alliance President’s message stressed the importance for all members to “celebrate our accomplishments, plan for our future and enjoy the camaraderie that binds us”. The AMA meeting was centered around ways in which we could connect with our members by examining the way we function as leaders and as a board.

The keynote speaker, Matt De La Cruz, a leader in the personal development industry, talk focused on “Unleashing the Leader Within”. His goal was to inspire us, by first equipping us with the proper tools. Matt said that, “Leadership is not title, position, power or stature. It is influence, nothing more, nothing less.” He closed his presentation with, “A leader sees more, sees farther, and sees before others.”

The Alliance is planning its Fall Conference to be held September 30 to October 1st in Schenectady at the Homewood Suites Schenectady. AMA Alliance member and Physician Family magazine editor, Donna Rovito will be our guest speaker on Monday morning, October 1st. She will be joining us via a web-based presentation
