

Medical Student Section Report

The Medical Student Section is in full recruitment mode. We are hoping to be able to greatly increase membership with the advent of free membership. We are calling for volunteers to be members of our committees and asking the recruiters at the school sections to greatly encourage signing up for the AMA via the MSSNY website. We are hoping to increase our social media presence (Instagram and Facebook) as the academic year continues.