

Nassau County Medical Society

Councilor's Report – May 30, 2019

Paul Pipia, MD, Councilor

- I. The Nassau County Medical Society wishes Dr. Arthur Fougner a wonderful term as the new President of the Medical Society of the State of New York. We look forward to collaborating with him on the goals and visions he has for the future.
- II. The Nassau County Medical Society would also like to thank Dr. Thomas Madejski for a great term as the President of MSSNY. We are grateful for his direction and strength in leading the Medical Society.
- III. On May 14th, the Public Health Committee met and discussed the measles outbreak, vaccinations, next generation health IT platforms, lead blood levels in refugee children, among other topics.
- IV. The Board members of the Academy of Medicine also met on May 14th to discuss updates on the property and other relevant matters.
- V. The Executive Committee of the Medical Society met on May 14th and discussed office organization, staffing, finances, and membership.
- VI. On May 29th we will hold the Nassau County Medicals Society Membership meeting at the Westbury Manor. There will be a presentation from RuskinMoscouFaltischek, P.C. to our members in attendance. The new nomination slate of officers will also be provided to those in attendance.
- VII. On June 19th, 12:30 pm; RuskinMoscouFaltischek, P.C. will hold a webinar on ~~Pre~~venting Sexual Harassment in the Workplace+for members the Nassau County Medical Society, The Suffolk County Medical Society and the Independent Physicians Association of Nassau and Suffolk.