Dear Dr. Green and Dr. Baron:

We are writing you to express thanks for your response to the physician community. We appreciate your recognition of the intense demands on physician time and finances inherent in today's challenging practice environment.

While we are intrigued, the Medical Society of the State of New York looks forward to hearing more details about what this new process of longitudinal assessment will entail. We thank the ABIM in advance for your further responsiveness to physician concerns.

Sincerely,

Arthur C. Fougner, MD, President
