

MSSNY THIRD DISTRICT REPORT

BRIAN P. MURRAY, MD, COUNCILOR

NOVEMBER 4, 2021

- AMC DEAN DR. VINCENT VERDILE SET TO RETIRE:
Vincent P. Verdile, MD, '84, the distinguished dean of Albany Medical College, will retire on December 31, 2021. Over the course of his tenure, Dr. Verdile, The Lynne and Mark Groban, MD, '67 Distinguished Dean of Albany Medical College and Senior Executive Vice President for System Care Delivery, has had a sweeping impact on the College and the Medical Center at large. Learn how—through spirit, strength, and sway—Dean Verdile has ushered Albany Medical College into the 21st century and created a lasting legacy at Albany Medical College that is marked by innovation and positive change.
- ST. PETER'S HEALTH PARTNERS GETS NATIONAL AWARD:
St. Peter's Health Partners is receiving state and national recognition for its new integrated behavioral health model in primary care, designed to greatly increase the number of patients receiving treatment for mental health issues like depression and anxiety.